

TRANSPORT EMPLOYEE CHECKLIST 2022

You should only make this claim if: you work for an airline, railway, bus or trucking company, or for an employer whose main business is transporting goods and/or passengers OR you do not work for a transport business however your main employment duty is transporting goods.

Meals & Lodging

A TL2 completed and signed by each of your employers must accompany this checklist.

Your Name:
Are you a long haul trucker? YES NO
Are you a short haul trucker? YES NO
If yes to either:
Meal claim:	Number of DAYS per truck logs - Canadian days	Number of DAYS per truck logs - US days
Away from municipality for up to 10 hours
Away from municipality 11-16 hours
Away from municipality more than 16 hours
Did you pay for lodging? YES NO
If yes provide receipts.

(Please note, this is a highly audited area by the Canada Revenue Agency. We highly recommend using only accurate records to make your claim.)

Does the company you work for collect and remit GST on its products or services?
YES NO
If yes, provide their GST number:

Other Expenses

A T2200 completed and signed by each of your employers must accompany this checklist to claim expenses in the following area.

Are you required to pay for any of the following expenses that you are not reimbursed for? YES NO
If yes provide receipts for:
	Cell phone
	Safety clothing (hard hats, steel toed boots, reflective clothing)
	Other supplies (such as tie down straps)
	Internet fees
	Other (please specify):